5th May 2022

Dear Parents & Carers,

International Nurses Day, Thursday 12th May (Infant School only)

Next Thursday 12th May is International Nurses' Day. As we have been learning about nurses in the past during our current history topic at the Infant school, we thought it would be nice to give the children the opportunity to come to school dressed as a nurse, doctor or someone from the medical profession. This outfit could reflect the uniform worn today or in the past. There are lots of good ideas on the internet for money saving outfits using what you have at home, as well as bought costumes if you wish. We look forward to seeing the children all dressed up next Thursday.

The Queen's Platinum Jubilee Celebration Picnic, Friday 27th May

Ormesby Village Infant and Junior Schools Federation PTFA are inviting our families to picnic on the school field to commemorate the Queen's Platinum Jubilee on Friday 27th May from 2:00PM. All our Federation families are invited to attend this joint schools' event being held on the Junior school playing field. Pupils are also invited to attend school on this day wearing a King or Queen costume should they wish. We are hoping that pupils will throw themselves into the whole celebratory theme and come to school on Friday 27th May dressed in their finest Kings and Queens costumes. It will be wonderful for us all to celebrate Queen Elizabeth's Platinum Jubilee year. We are sure it will make for some lifelong memories. A reminder flyer is also on our Facebook page.

Yours sincerely,

Bradley Young
