

What is Pop art and why was it so popular?

Spotlight Artists:

Andy Warhol

1928-1987

"You need to let the little things that would ordinarily bore you suddenly thrill you."
Andy Warhol

Roy Lichtenstein

1923-1997

Roy Lichtenstein- Pop (1965)

Art Detectives

How is this image different from real life?

Why do you think the artist made this painting?

Andy Warhol-Marilyn (F. & S. II.31) 1967

Skills and Techniques

Use different shading techniques to give depth to a drawing.

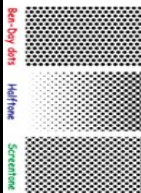

Create a background colour wash.

Demonstrate ideas for your final piece of art in your sketchbook.

Be able to compare different artists.

Identify parts of your work that you are proud of and what you would like to improve.

Key Vocabulary

Ben Day dots-a term used to describe small coloured dots, typically in cyan, (cyan is a colour between green and blue.) magenta, yellow, and black, that are variously spaced and combined to create shading and complete images.

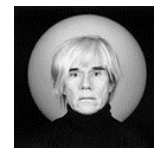

Primary colours-are red, yellow and blue. They cannot be made by mixing other colours together. The primary colours sit equal distances apart on the colour wheel. All other colours can be mixed from red, yellow and blue.

Self portrait-is a picture of the artist drawing it. They are also a way of documenting how we see ourselves, and how we want others to perceive us. For some it's all about experimentation and trying new things.

Roy Lichtenstein-Roy Lichtenstein was born in New York in 1923. He became famous for his bright and bold paintings of comic strip cartoons as well as his paintings of everyday objects. He was one of a group of artists making art in the 1960s.

Andy Warhol- born Andrew Warhola in 1928 in Pennsylvania. His parents were from a part of Europe that is now part of Slovakia. They moved to New York in the 1920s. His first job was illustrating adverts in fashion magazines. Now is he known as one of the most influential artists who ever lived!

Pop Art-Pop art is a style of art based on simple, bold images of everyday items, such as soup cans, painted in bright colours. They were called pop artists because they made art about 'popular' things like TV, celebrities, fast food, pop music and cartoons.

Character

Can I create expression and feeling in a Pop Art self portrait?

Critical thinking

Why is Pop Art good for advertising?

Creativity

Can you create a piece of Pop Art using one of your favourite food brands?

Communication

Can you identify your classmates through their Pop Art portraits?

Citizenship

Research other artists that were involved in the Pop Art scene. Who will be your favourite?

Collaboration

Why not take a photo of your whole class' Pop Art portraits!

glue here

You Might Like To...

Learn more about Andy Warhol and create an image of your favourite canned food. Don't forget, take a photo and put on class Dojo!

<https://artprep.weebly.com/warhol-soup-cans.html>

Andy Warhol, Campbell's Condensed Tomato Soup (1962)